If You're Going to Complain...

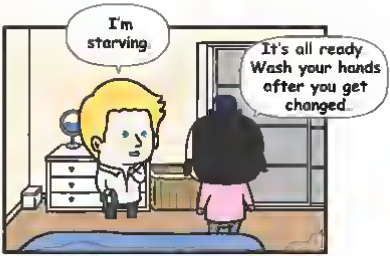
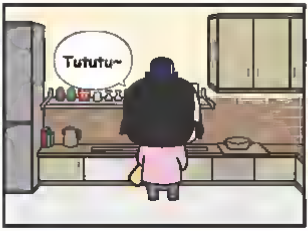
Mev finishes work late on Wednesday
so he comes home at 9



I prepare his dinner in advance.



I normally cook something simple like soups or a stir-fry.

Because it's a late dinner.

So, one of the foods that Mev eats is something on toast.

That something is usually tinned food such as ravioli, macaroni cheese or spaghetti.

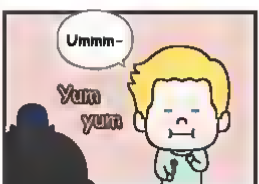
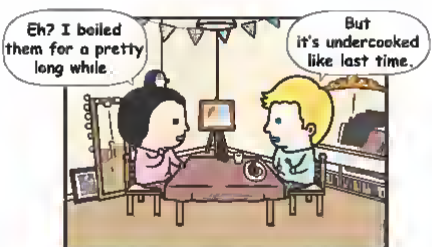
One of his favourites is beans and sausages.

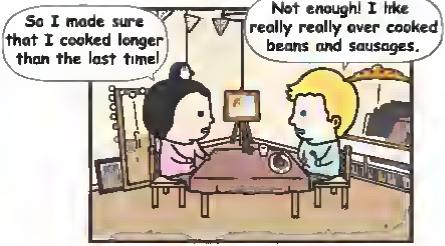
One day, I put the warmed up beans and sausages on the toast.

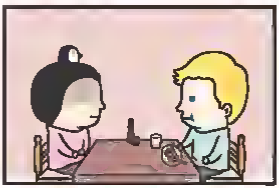
Then,...





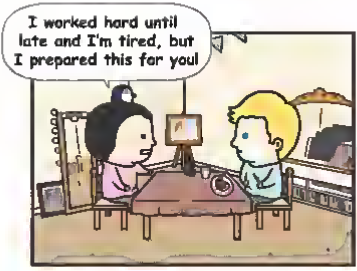
Mev complained about the meal.





His complaining

It annoyed me.



He noticed that I was upset,
so he made his sad puffy face.

... I... I'll try again.

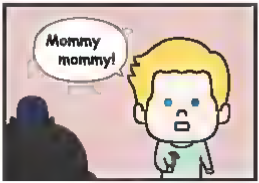
Yum yum



Mommy
mommy!

My sausage says
he is cold

Sausage, cold cold

If you're going to complain about something, it's best that you're being cute at the same time.
